Let's Start!

I applied for my dream job!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you have a dream job? What is it?
- Why do you want that job?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about rooms and objects in them.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.

Let's Explore!

Peter talks about his dream job ... what is it?

* Your "dream job" is the job you really want.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: So, Peter, have a seat on my comfy chaise and tell me about your life!
Vanessa: Yeah, enough secrecy. Tell us everything!
Peter: Well, I applied for my dream job.
Sally: Dream job?! What is it?
Vanessa: Sounds exciting. My dream job is definitely being a chef. It's something I really want to do forever. What's yours, Peter?
Peter: I applied to a really big PR firm in Boston. I saw the ad when I was looking through the newspaper in the kitchen. It jumped out at me right away.
Sally: It's meant to be!
Peter: I hope so. They are the largest PR firm in the area and they have many big-name clients. I got so nervous when I was typing my resume and cover letter.
Vanessa: I bet!
Sally: When do you expect to hear back from them?
Peter: Maybe next week.
Vanessa: Fingers crossed!
Sally: Yeah, good luck Peter!
Peter: Thanks, you two.

Let's Practice!

Have a seat on my comfy couch ... tell me everything!

Instructions: Draw a line from the words on the bottom to the pictures above.

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense and Past Continuous Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished. You use the Past Continuous to talk about events or actions that were happening at a time in the past.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb"ing" to verbs.

Some verbs need a change to the last letter to add "ing".

Present	Past	Past Continuous
look	looked	was/were looking
sit	sat	was/were sitting
read	read	was/were reading
apply	applied	was/were applying
type	typing	was/were typing
jump	jumped	was/were jumping

Examples:

- I saw the ad when I was reading the newspaper.
- I sat down when I was typing my résumé.
