Sally: I might continue blogging about travel.
Peter: You can blog about the cool things you got last month - like this chest or those nesting dolls.
- Vanessa: Sounds like you found your dream job, Sally.
Sally: Speaking of dream jobs ... what do you want to do at the PR firm, Peter?
Peter: I'm not sure yet. I heard they have great benefits.
Vanessa: Well, if you get the job, I'll come and visit you in Boston.
Sally: I will, too! While I was doing some research about travel destinations last year, I read that Bostonians are really open-minded people. The city has an eclectic mix of shops and restaurants. Perfect for you and me, V!

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense and Past Continuous Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished. You use the Past Continuous to talk about events or an action that was happening at a time in the past.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb"ing" to verbs.

Some verbs need a change to the last letter to add "ing".

Present	Past	Past Continuous
do	did	was/were doing
carry	carried	was/were carrying
pay	paid	was/were paying
travel	traveled	was/were traveling
rip	ripped	was/were ripping
have	had	was/were having

Examples:

- I did so much shopping when I was traveling in Europe.
- They were talking when he ripped his jacket.
