

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Are you moving for work?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is important about a job?
- What makes a good job?

Can Do Statements

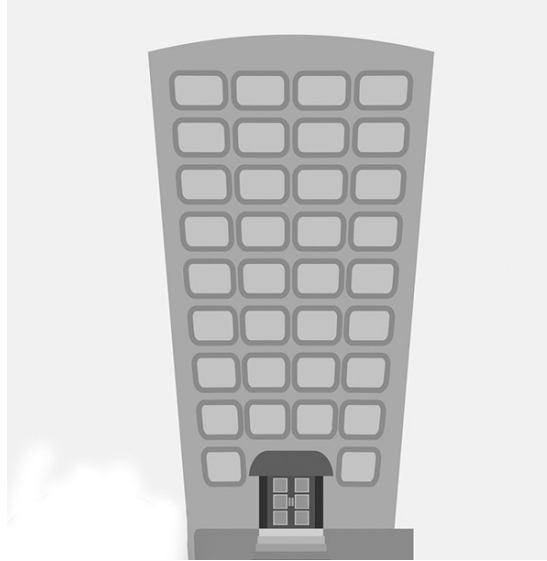

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can say what I'm doing in the future.
- I can talk about hypothetical actions and events in the future.

Let's Explore!

Peter asks Vanessa and Sally what they think he should do about his dream job. What do they say?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: So, Peter, are you moving to Boston?
Sally: If you get your dream job, you'll have to move to Boston, right?
Peter: Yeah. What do you think I should do?
Vanessa: You may get it. It's better to be in Boston so you can start right away.
Sally: I don't know, V. If he moves too early, it'll be bad luck.
Peter: You believe that, Sally?
Vanessa: She's really superstitious.
Peter: If I move too early, I'm going to have to pay rent at a new apartment.
Sally: That's true.
Peter: I'm not sure what to do.
Vanessa: Well, if you move to Boston, I'll be the first person to visit! I love it here!
Sally: Why don't you apply for work there, V? Are you going back to San Francisco?
Vanessa: If I go back to San Fran, I'll have to see Marco again! I'm not sure I'm ready for that.
Sally: Well, you have time to think about it.
Peter: I wish I had time!! I can't make up my mind ...

Let's Practice!

What will happen if Peter gets his dream job?

Instructions: Reread the dialogue. Select all the correct answers.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. Which sentences talk about possible actions in the future? | <ul style="list-style-type: none">☐ I will see you if you move closer.☐ If he moves to Boston, I wish him luck.☐ If you get your dream job, you'll be happy.☐ If she visits me in San Francisco, she'll stay with me.☐ I wish I had time. |
|--|--|

Let's Practice!

Let's talk about the future!

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake. Use capital letters where necessary.

1. Are you move to Boston?
2. I night move back to San Francisco.
3. She day apply for her dream job.
4. We well make up our minds tomorrow.
5. She might being more superstitious at home.

Extension Activity

Let's talk about the future!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write down 6 simple phrases in the Simple Present tense (For example: get a new job, win the lottery, meet a new friend).
- Your partner will write 6 different phrases.
- Put the pieces of paper together and mix them up.
- One person chooses a piece of paper and makes a first conditional sentence using the phrase.
- Your partner must check your grammar and ask follow up questions to keep the conversation going.
- Repeat steps d) and e) until you have used all phrases.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write down creative phrases.

☐ ☐

I use these phrases to talk about the future.

☐ ☐

I listen to and check my partner's grammar.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to move (verb): to change the location of where you live
e.g. Are you moving to Boston?
- superstitious (adjective): believing in good or bad luck
e.g. Sally is a superstitious person.
- rent (noun): amount of money you pay to use a room or apartment e.g. I have to pay rent at a new apartment.
- to make up my mind (expression): to decide
e.g. I can't make up my mind.
- to apply (verb): to look for employment at a company
e.g. Why don't you apply for work in Boston?

Learning Points

The Modals May, Might, Will

You use the modals may and might to show possibility. They have the same meaning. You use the modal will to predict the future in a more certain way.

Modals go before a verb in the base form. The verb does not change.

Examples:

- You may get your dream job.
- I might move back to San Francisco. I'm not sure yet.

The First Conditional

You use the First Conditional to talk about real possibilities in the future.

You use the First Conditional to say it's possible that you will do something. In that condition, something else will happen.

If clause	Main Clause
If you get your dream job,	you'll have to move to Boston.
If he moves too early,	it'll be bad luck.
If he moves to Boston,	I'll be the first person to visit.

