

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Work is good! I have some news for you!

Learning Outcome

Identify and describe plans for the organization of events.

Ask your partner:

- Did you hear any good news lately?
- What was it?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can say what I'm doing in the future.
- I can talk about possible actions and events in the future.

Let's Explore!

John e-mails Peter with some news. What's the scoop?

* "The scoop" is the fresh details of the news.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Oh, hey. It's an e-mail from John.

Vanessa: What does it say?

Peter: Hi, Peter. How's life? Work is good on the cruise ship. We have long shifts, but great benefits. I can't complain! Life is getting interesting for me. I have some news for you. Sandra and I are engaged! That's right - we're getting married. Crazy, eh? I proposed yesterday and she said yes! I'll buy a ring next week. Call me later so we can talk about it. Say hi to Sal and V for me too. Talk to you soon, John.

Sally: What? He's engaged? Wow!

Vanessa: I know! I can't believe it! If he gets married, we will never see him!

Peter: Well, we never see him anyway. He works on a cruise ship.

Sally: He will have to get a better apartment if they get married. The one he has now is not big enough.

Peter: I might have to call him before tomorrow. I'll have to talk to him!

Vanessa: I may have to, too! We need the scoop!

Let's Practice!

What are Vanessa, Sally and John doing in the future?

Instructions: Reread the dialogue. Select the correct answer.

1. Peter says he _____ call John.
 - ☐ might
 - ☐ night
 - ☐ mite
2. Vanessa agrees. She says:
 - ☐ I may have to, too.
 - ☐ I might have to, too.
 - ☐ I will too.
3. John is getting married so he _____ buy a ring for Sandra.
 - ☐ won't
 - ☐ Will
 - ☐ might

Let's Practice!

What's the scoop?!

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: gets, propose, tell, will.

1. If he _____ married, we won't see him anymore.
2. If they get married, they _____ move to a bigger apartment.
3. If you _____, you will have to buy a ring.
4. If he calls later, I'll _____ you.

Extension Activity

Write an e-mail with some news for your friend.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Imagine you have some good news.
- Write an e-mail to a partner telling them all about it.
- Ask your partner to read your e-mail out loud.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write an e-mail about some good news.

☐
☐

I send it to my partner

☐
☐

My partner reads the e-mail aloud and we talk about it.

☐
☐

Target Words

- shift (noun): a period of time you work at a job
e.g. We have long shifts at work.
- benefit (noun): a form of additional payment at work (vacation time, pension, health care)
Example: We have great benefits at work.
- to be engaged (verb): to promise to marry someone
e.g. John and Sandra are engaged.
- to propose (verb): to ask someone to marry you e.g. John proposed to Sandra.
- to complain (verb): to express feelings of pain or unhappiness e.g. I can't complain about my job - it is great.

Learning Points

Talking About Jobs and Work

A common topic for small talk in English is jobs and work.

You can ask about someone's job using the question What do you do?

This is generally a 'safe' topic and one that many people like to talk about.

You usually give a brief description of the job, the location of the job and your opinion of it.

Examples:

• Tom: What do you do?

Sam: I work in advertising. My office is on Main Street. I really enjoy it. I can't complain! How about you?

The First Conditional

You use the First Conditional to talk about real possibilities in the future.

You use the First Conditional to say it's possible that you will do something. In that condition, something else will happen.

If clause	Main Clause
If he gets married,	we will never see him.
If they get married,	he will have to get a better apartment.

Examples:

• Gloria: If he gets married, we'll never see him.

Bob: I know!

